JAPANESE CLAIM ALL SUCHOW BUT SECTION NOW IN THEIR HANDS

Furious Street Fighting Follows Assault Through Hail of Chinese Fire—Long Hours of Heavy Bombardment Precede Attack—Japanese Fight Off Repeated Counter-Attacks

SHANGHAI, May 19 (P).—Japanese reported officially today that they had occupied all the strategic city of Suchow except the southern section where a fierce struggle was going on. A Japanese communique said both sides were rushing reinforcements to the contested area.

Furious hand-to-hand fighting was said to be going on in the city's streets after tremendous assault forces fought their way through a hail of stubborn Chinese fire.

Japanese officers declared they expected to have complete control within a few hours of the juncture of the Lunghai Railway and the North-South Tientsin-Pukow line which China has defended bitterly through more than three weeks of heaviest fighting.

WRECKAGE OF PLANE FOUND

Nine Persons Burned to Death on Machine Missing Since Monday

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 18 (P).—Only thirty miles away from its starting point at Union Air Terminal, Burbank, a big air liner crashed into a mountainside Monday, exploded and burned to death its nine occupants.

Shrouded by a dense fog for forty hours, the wreckage was discovered today and the charred bodies carried out of the mountains by stretcher-bearers.

APPARENTLY LOST IN FOG
The clock in the transport's instrument board showed the hands pointed at 2:07 o'clock. This fixed the time of the crash just twenty-seven minutes after the plane left the airport. It also indicated the pilot, Sid Willey, apparently was lost in the fog and was circling or cutting back on the course, for the ship was capable of 250 miles an hour.

That Willey plotted his course over the fog-bound mountain ranges to the east at an altitude only a few hundred feet higher than the crest of the peaks was shown in his report filed with the dispatcher at the air terminal, where it took off at 1:40 p.m. Monday.

WIDE ADVANCES
Wide advances both east and west of Suchow were claimed simultaneously.

RAIL EXPERTS DIFFER WIDELY

Operations Through Fraser Canyon Discussed by C.P.R. Engineer

OTTAWA, May 18.—Short sessions of the Senate railway inquiry today were featured by sharp disagreement between J. E. Armstrong, assistant chief engineer of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and a previous witness, S. W. Fairweather, Canadian National economist.

Mr. Fairweather had voiced objection to the Canadian Pacific plan to unify under co-operation the lines between Kamloops and Vancouver on the ground that one line could not handle all Coastwise traffic and that a main line tie-up in that territory would halt all westward movement.

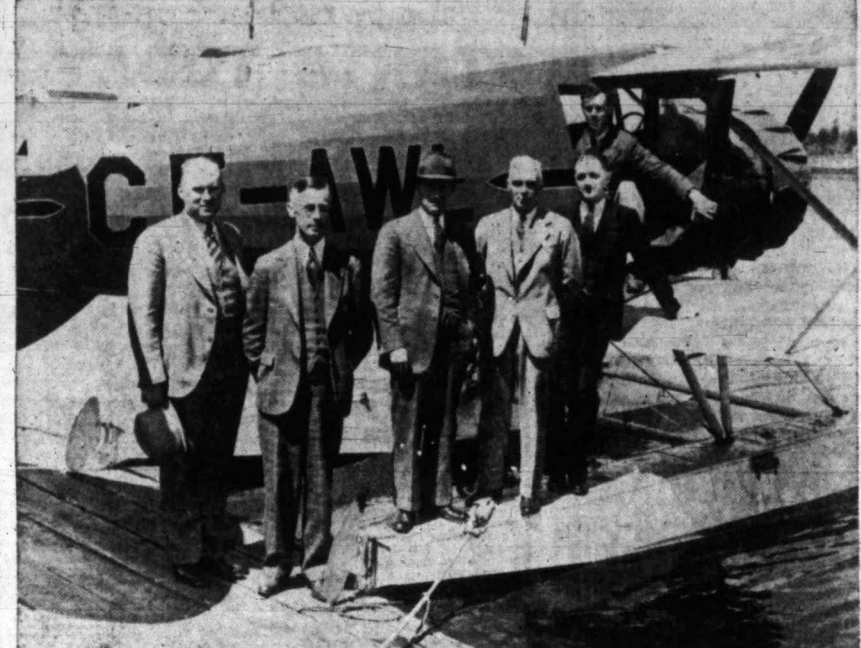

The Canadian Pacific witness, dealing with co-operative measures generally, said that following members of the joint co-operative committee must have overlooked the southern Canadian Pacific route to Vancouver, through Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, Nelson and Hope. This all-rail alternative line, he said, relieved the country of supposed dependency on the Fraser Canyon bottle neck and was available as a detour as well as performing its own functions as a Coast outlet.

SEES FURTHER SAFEGUARD
Double track from Hope to Vancouver, he added, was a further safeguard against glutton traffic.

Mr. Armstrong had only commenced his outline of co-operative efforts between the major railway systems when the committee adjourned. Tomorrow, the last day during which the Senate committee will sit this week, it is expected that he will reveal in detail negotiations which have led to actual abandonments or technical disagreements during the past six years.

Best information available today was that Sir Edward Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, would not be called to the stand to explain his unification proposals until next week, when the committee will reconvene in a period sprinkled with such holidays as Victoria Day and Ascension Day.

Victoria Is Back on Air Lanes Once More

Financed by a small group of local businessmen, Victoria is to have a regular air service with the Mainland again. Last evening the first scheduled round trip was flown; while earlier in the afternoon a special flight from Esquimalt to Sea Island was undertaken, with Pilot Terence Finney in charge, the passengers including Fred M. McGregor, Alderman Lloyd Morgan and C. S. Henley. The photograph was taken at Esquimalt just before the takeoff. Left to right: W. J. Dyson, F. M. McGregor, Alderman Morgan, C. S. Henley and Walter S. Miles. Pilot Finney is seen in the open port of the Waco plane, which arrived here Tuesday from the factory.

Court Reserves Decision on City Of Victoria Appeal

Council Says Act Found Ultra Vires Was Decent Arrangement to Save Municipality From Chaos—Denies Any Attempt to Assume Power of Dominion in Interest Matters

VANCOUVER, May 18 (P).—The British Columbia Court of Appeal today reserved decision in the appeal of the City of Victoria from a decision of Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson that the 1937 Victoria Debt Refunding Act was ultra vires of the Provincial Legislature.

The act refunded various debentures held by the public to the total of $14,220,000 by extending the time for payment of principal to 1966. It fixed the rate of interest at 4 1/2 per cent which the City would pay from the dates when the bonds matured to the extended time for payment of the principal.

FULL COURT SITS
Chief Justice Archer Martin and Justices M. A. Macdonald, W. H. McQuarrie, Gordon Sloan and C. H. O'Halloran heard the appeal.

FEDERAL LOAN SOLD QUICKLY

Dominion Issue Oversubscribed in Half Hour After Books Opened

OTTAWA, May 18 (P).—Hon. Charles Dunning, Finance Minister, tonight announced allotments of the new Dominion of Canada $140,000,000 loan oversubscribed half an hour after it was placed on the market today.

As a result of the allotments the new bonds will be outstanding in the following amounts: Six-year 2 per cent bonds, $90,000,000; twenty years 3 per cent bonds, $49,000,000. The offer of conversion to holders of the outstanding 2 per cent bonds which mature October 15 next was "very successful," the minister announced.

LITTLE NOT CONVERTED
Of the total of $90,000,000 of such maturing bonds, $89,825,000 were converted into one or the other of the two maturities of the new issue. The loan was for a maximum of $140,000,000, of which $90,000,000 was conversion and the rest cash subscriptions.

It took the form of six-year, 2 per cent bonds due June 1, 1944, priced at 99.375 and accrued interest, to yield approximately 2.11 per cent to maturity, and twenty-year, 3 per cent bonds due June 1, 1958, priced at 99 and accrued interest, to yield approximately 3.07 per cent to maturity.

INSURGENTS SMASH ON

Shock Troops Break Way Through Spanish Government Defence Lines

HENDAYE, France, May 18 (P).—Spanish insurgent shock troops smashed today through Government defence lines in Castellon and Teruel Provinces.

Bitter fighting swept the insurgents forward toward Valencia and the sea from both ends of their East-West line and gave them heights for the jump-off of a general attack on the Government's strong defences on the Valencia highway to the south.

Mountain units on insurgent General Franco's right wing fought through the hills around lofty Penaroya Peak, east of Teruel. On one side they threatened the village of Valdelmarras, still a Government post in their ragged line. On the other they menaced the Government's main defence point guarding the road to Mora de Rubielos, twenty miles southeast of Teruel on the line to the Mediterranean.

DRIVING SOUTH
Insurgents at Zaragoza, Spain, Franco's Eastern field headquarters, said General Jose Varela's command had pushed beyond Valdelmarras, driving south of El Pobo and Alepuz toward the Mora de Rubielos.

General Jose Miaja, Government commander on the Central front, rushed reinforcements to the coastal Castellon sector, insurgent military dispatches said, while Franco's troops drove against Government-held heights that dominate the whole strategic triangle between Al-bocacer, Cuevas de Vinroma and Sierra Engarceran.

BOAT SALVAGED OFF WEST COAST

Works Department Craft Pulled From Beach After Wreck Near Nitinat Bar

The fifty-five-foot launch, L. and H. of the Provincial Department of Public Works, is back in Victoria Harbor this morning. The L. and H. was hauled off the beach, where she has been high and dry about a quarter of a mile east of the Nitinat River since May 12, when she became unmanageable on Nitinat Bar and her crew of two Victorians were taken off by Indians.

The L. and H. was brought into Victoria overnight, arriving here at 2 o'clock this morning. The launch was salvaged by the crew of the Snohomish, with W. G. Jordan, superintendent of Pacific Salvage Company, in charge of the operations. The L. and H. is at the docks and will be surveyed here.

BETTER FOOD IS NEED OF GERMANS

WIESBADEN, Germany, May 18 (CP-Havas).—German physicians today warned the Government it would have to provide the people with better bread, fruit and fresh vegetables. More or less synthetic bread now used has been severely criticized by doctors as not conducive to good health.

UPPER HOUSE GIVES APPROVAL TO PREMIER'S FOREIGN POLICY

Japanese Admit 135,000 Killed in Chinese Warfare

HANKOW, May 18 (CP-Havas).—The Central (Chinese) News Agency reported today that an official Japanese announcement made at Yenchow, in Southern Shantung, estimated that 135,000 Japanese troops had been killed in China since the war began last July.

Relief Fund Of Chicago Exhausted

CHICAGO, May 18 (P).—The doors of all Chicago's relief stations were closed tonight. All service, except medical care and the distribution of emergency rations, was suspended.

General assistance, halted because the city's relief administration exhausted its funds, cannot be resumed until the State furnishes financial aid—possibly a week hence, or perhaps not until June 1.

Some 170,000 persons received their regular cheques for May before the treasury was empty.

CANADIAN LINE GIVES EXAMPLE

Cited in British House to Support Plea for Air Nationalization

LONDON, May 18 (CP-Havas).—Operating of the Canadian National Steamship Line to the West Indies by the Dominion Government was cited in the House of Commons today in support of a Labor motion, urging nationalization of Great Britain's subsidized air lines.

The motion, defeated 173-108, was presented during debate on the bill to increase annual Government subsidies to civil air lines from $15,000,000 to $23,000,000 ($7,500,000 to $15,000,000), in which Sir Kingsley Wood and Captain Harold H. Balfour made their debut as Secretary and Under-Secretary for Air.

BILL ADOPTED
The bill, embodying recommendations made in the Lord Cadman committee report on civil aviation, was adopted on second reading.

Frederick Montague, sponsor of the Labor motion, referred to the Canadian National Steamship Line to support his contention that state-run services could be justified.

The line, he pointed out, while running at a loss, was operated by the Canadian Government to prevent the West Indies from falling into the commercial orbit of the United States.

FIRE RAZES DWELLING AT EAST WELLINGTON

NANAIMO, May 18.—Fanned by a strong wind, fire, starting in the chimney, destroyed a six-room dwelling at East Wellington today. The house was owned and occupied by Mrs. S. Stewart. Volunteer firefighters carried buckets of well water until the supply gave out. Only a few pieces of furniture were saved.

SEATTLE HAS Big Deal in Real Estate

SEATTLE, May 18 (P).—Downtown Seattle property valued at $1,000,000 changed hands today in one of the biggest real estate transactions here in several years.

The deal involved sale of a Third and Pine corner building by the Exeter Company, of Seattle, to the Bradley Estate, of Boston.

Viscount Halifax Terms Anglo-Italian Agreement Beginning Toward Peace—Hopes for Removal Of Distrust and Suspicion Between Britain And Germany—Not Condoning Aggression

Road Roughened by Sudden Rift in Friendship Talks

LONDON, May 18 (P).—Viscount Halifax, Foreign Secretary, tonight termed the Anglo-Italian agreement a "beginning toward peace" as he wound up for the Government a full-dress foreign policy debate in the House of Lords. Without a recorded vote, the House approved Prime Minister Chamberlain's moves in foreign affairs and rejected a Labor motion of censure.

THREATENED WITH DEATH

United States Airman Complains of Severe Grilling By Japanese Police

SEATTLE, May 18 (P).—Elwyn Gibbon, twenty-seven, former United States flyer and Sacramento, Cal., newspaperman, told reporters tonight on his arrival from the Orient that Japanese secret police constantly threatened him with death for his activities with China's air force.

Gibbon was returning to the United States aboard the liner Empress of Asia when arrested at Yokohama by Japanese officials. The incident caused international complications.

"The Japanese were merciless in their grilling and they kept repeating their threats. I was questioned on one occasion for fifteen hours straight," he said.

THOUGHT NUMBER UP
"They showed me article 81, section 6 of their criminal code, and even had an interpreter translate it for me. The article provides that anyone guilty of 'bearing arms against Japan' shall be sentenced to death. I thought my number was up."

Later Gibbon was released after the United States State Department intervened.

"Their jails are terrible. I had a good chance to find out. Save for the time when I was being grilled I spent five days and nights in an 8x12 cell with five Japanese criminals. I'm still scratching myself," said the ex-flying instructor for the Chinese air corps.

He forecast China would win the war "through sheer inability of Japan to make any great dent with arms or other brands of persuasion on China's teeming millions."

SENATE PASSES DIVORCE BILL

Act to Broaden Grounds for Dissolution of Marriage Sent to Commons

OTTAWA, May 18 (P).—By a bare majority of four the Senate today carried third reading of the bill sponsored by Hon. Lendrum McMeans (Conservative, Winnipeg) to broaden the grounds for divorce in Canada. The vote was thirty-three to twenty-nine.

The measure now goes to the House of Commons, where its course is uncertain.

Today's Senate vote cut through party lines. Eleven Liberal senators approved the bill; twelve were opposed. Conservatives in favor numbered twenty-two, with seven against.

All the Roman Catholic members of the Senate present registered themselves in opposition.

SUPPORTED BY OTHERS
They were supported by four non-Catholics—Sir Allen Aylesworth (Liberal, North York), William Duff (Liberal, Lunenburg), George Gordon (Conservative, Nipissing) and J. H. King (Liberal, Kootenay East).

Adhering closely to the bill approved in the British Parliament last year, the measure seeks to add to adultery, at present the sole ground for divorce, a number of others. These include desertion for six years, cruelty "as interpreted and determined by the High Court of England in divorce and matrimonial causes," incurable insanity over a period of five years, and extreme immorality on the part of the husband.

Lord Halifax said he hoped for the removal of "all causes of mistrust and suspicion between ourselves and Germany."

NO CONDONATION
Great Britain, he said, did not condone Italian aggression in Ethiopia, but it was necessary to reconcile what was ideally right with what was practically possible. A degree of opposition to the Italians existed in Ethiopia but there was no central (Ethiopian) administration with the slightest prospect of reconquering the country.

Turning to the League of Nations, Lord Halifax said: "Nothing would more destroy the devotion of our people to the league as an instrument for peace than if they got it into their heads it is an instrument likely to involve them in war."

Earlier in the debate the Archbishop of Canterbury, Most Rev. Cosmo Lang, voiced repugnance at the Italian invasion of Ethiopia and deep humiliation at the league's failure to protect an ancient Christian state.

COURT-CONGRESS FIGHT FORESEEN

U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Says Lawyers Seeking to Transfer Powers of the People

WASHINGTON, May 18 (P).—Henry Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, declared today a new battle was in prospect over an "attempt to have the courts invade the administrative field" of the United States Government.

In a statement issued at a press conference, Wallace said corporation lawyers had started a move to get Congress to "transfer to the courts the power of decision which during the past fifty years the people through Congress have increasingly given to Government regulatory bodies."

Such action, he asserted, would involve price protection for farmers, wage and hour protection for laborers, and protection of consumers against "exorbitant rates and prices."

B.C. Conservatives Prepare for Ottawa Convention in July

Victoria Delegates Will Be Chosen at General Meeting This Evening, With Vancouver Island Organization Reported Actively Under Way

PART of the task of organizing a nation-wide convention of the party, to be held at Ottawa commencing July 3, Victoria Conservatives will hold a general meeting this evening to select four delegates and four alternates to the gathering. President R. D. Harvey will take the chair at a special gathering, called for 8 o'clock in the Conservative rooms.

Before the meeting will go reports from committees looking into the question of ways and means. One committee, under R. A. Wootton, will report the names of a number of members willing and able to attend the national convention. Nominations will also be received from the floor of the meeting. Mr. Harvey explained.

A second committee will report on costs of the undertaking, expected to work out at about $250 per delegate, for the return trip and a brief stay at the national capital.

BUSY IN PROVINCE
Elsewhere throughout the province the task of organizing the convention is actively under way, with J. H. Morgan, R. D. Harvey and Mayor T. A. Love as British Columbia representatives on the national convention committee, under J. R. MacNicol, M.P.

An organization meeting was held at Cowichan last evening. The Victoria pre-convention meeting will be tonight. The Nanaimo-Federal meeting will be held at Duncan on Saturday, and this will be followed by an early meeting in the Comox-Alberni riding, where impending retirement of A. W. Nell, M.P., has created fresh interest. As island representative on the national committee, Mr. Harvey will attend all these gatherings.

On Saturday, June 4, the executive of the British Columbia Conservative Association, of which R. A. Wootton is a member, will meet in Victoria to decide finally upon representation to the Ottawa gathering.

Meanwhile, Conservative organizers report awakened interest general throughout the province with the approach of two conventions. The provincial convention will follow early in the autumn.

LIBERAL PARTY SEEKING UNITY

Advisory Council of National Federation Passes Resolution for Harmony

OTTAWA, May 18 (C).—Declaring the unity of Canada and her democracy required defence from numerous "isms," the Liberal party, through the advisory council of the National Liberal Federation, today pledged itself to guard that unity. The federation, in its one-day meeting, took cognizance of many things that have happened in Canada since its last session and indicated the importance of the policy statements to be made by naming Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, chairman of the resolutions committee.

It was Mr. Lapointe who read to more than 200 Liberals, representing every province of Canada and including many members of the Commons and Senate, the resolution on "national unity" and "democratic government."

The unanimously-passed resolution on "democratic government" linked together Communism, Fascism, Nazism, separatism, sectionalism and provincialism as foes of Canada.

Harmonious relations between Dominion and provinces and between the provinces themselves are essential to national unity, the "national unity" resolution read, and the council said it "would view with regret any move or action which might endanger such unity."

Prime Minister Mackenzie King made the keynote speech of the meeting with a plea for the unity in the Liberal party of those interested in promoting liberal thought and action in Canada. Mr. King said his Government had made a conscientious effort to make effective the fourteen plans in the Liberal platform of 1935. With the aid of those who helped them the Government could carry through until every pledge was implemented.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

All officers of the federation were re-elected. They are: Honorary president, Mr. King; president, Senator Norman Lambert; vice-presidents, Mr. Lapointe and Senator Cairne Wilson; English secretary, Walter B. Herbert; French secretary, A. Philias Cote.

The council by resolution expressed its appreciation of the "constructive contribution" being made by the press and other information mediums to Canada's life, and expressed confidence in Mr. King.

INEXPLICABLE SEA MYSTERY

Capture of Anglo-Australian By Insurgents Too Fantastic to Discuss

LONDON, May 18 (C).—Admiralty and Air Ministry officials are considering as a "matter of urgency" a sea and air search for traces of the British tanker Anglo-Australian, mysteriously lost two months ago with her crew of thirty-nine.

J. Chuter, member of Parliament for the district in which most of the crew lived, said today he had received this assurance from the Government.

The Anglo-Australian, last reported off Fayal, Azores, March 14, was bound for Vancouver.

Any theory the 5,456-ton freighter was captured and converted by Spanish insurgents is "too fantastic to discuss," Sir John Latta, chairman of the company operating the vessel, told interviewers.

"It seems that the vessel has vanished in thin air to provide one of those inexplicable mysteries of the sea," Sir John said.

PEOPLE GOING BACK TO HOMES

Correspondent Says Shanghai Residents Settling in District Again

According to a letter reaching the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau from a resident of Shanghai, people there are gradually returning to their residences in the war-torn district.

The letter reads in part as follows: "Things are picking up slowly but surely in this town of ours. The curfew still rings loud and furiously at 12:30 every night until 5 a.m., but we are used to it now although we do very often break the law and outwit the police on duty—in fact, too often! The war areas are now open and people are going back to what is left of their homes—but very few foreigners are doing so, with the exception of the Western area, where wealthy foreigners have their own homes."

FOLDERS AND MAPS

Also from Shanghai, the bureau received a request for a further supply of descriptive folders and maps giving information concerning Victoria as a place of residence.

In making this request, the writer stated, "we are receiving a large number of requests for information concerning Victoria from Shanghai residents who are considering retiring there."

By yesterday's mail a copy of The Shanghai Times, giving publicity to this city, was received at the bureau office. The front page of the rotogravure section is devoted to the reproduction of two pictures, supplied by the bureau, showing the Rooster's Comb, highest surveyed mountain on Vancouver Island, 7,219 feet, and a view of Sproat Lake.

Had Many Boils

On His Neck and Body

While the skin seems to be the cause of the irritating and painful boils the real trouble is rooted in the blood, and when you think you are rid of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your agony.

All the poulticing and lancing you may do does not, as a rule, get rid of them. What is most essential is to give the blood a thorough cleansing.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized by Burdock Blood Bitters the boils disappear, your misery is at an end, your health and strength renewed, and the skin clean and smooth.

MR. ALFRED A. FERRIER, Falkenburg, Ont., writes: "Several years ago I suffered greatly from numerous boils on my neck and body, and had three blind ones on my knee.

Our druggist advised me to take Burdock Blood Bitters, so I took two bottles, and in a short time I was completely rid of the boils."

Labor Body Claims B.C. Executive Not Authorized to Act

Victoria Council Contends Mainland Group Assuming Powers Left in Hands of Convention Committee—Vote Being Taken on Federation

MAJORITY delegates of the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council in session here last night expressed dissatisfaction over what they termed "undemocratic assumption of powers by officials of the British Columbia executive of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada" concerning a call vote of trade unions on the proposal to revamp the British Columbia federation of labor.

Members of Victoria Council contend a special committee was set up by the convention in the Capital City last Fall to arrange the poll. At that time delegates to the convention voted 94 to 31 to reorganize the federation and left the matter in the hands of the committee of which W. Atkinson, Nanaimo, was to have been the chairman. Victoria members of the committee claim they have been ignored by the British Columbia executive and the call vote of unions proceeded with "in a manner that may not secure a poll representative of organized labor in British Columbia."

MOTION DEFEATED
 A motion of the Victoria Council, which would have called together the convention committee "for the purpose of forming a British Columbia Federation which would include representatives of organized labor in the Province irrespective of trade union affiliation," was defeated by a narrow margin. The council proposed to wait until after the result of the vote on June 14 before taking further action.

W. H. Youhill, veteran member of the council, pressed for immediate action by the convention committee and declared his opposition to the formation of a federation by officials of the British Columbia executive of the congress. Mr. Youhill stated if the vote was favorable the Victoria Council and other councils "would be on the sidewalk watching the procession go by." He claimed it was not good business for any other body than that elected by the convention to handle the taking of the vote or the preliminaries of the organization.

VETERAN RESIGNS
 Mr. Youhill, who has for many years associated himself with the labor movement in British Columbia and other parts of Canada, tendered his resignation as a member of the council on account of failing health. Regrets were voiced by E. F. Fox, president, and Mr. Youhill, who sat as a delegate from the Typographical Union, was accorded a vote of thanks for his past services to labor.

The council voted to endorse a petition for a tag day for the Relief Workers' Project Union. A committee was appointed to interview the naval authorities here concerning a report that members of the naval volunteer reserve were being placed in jobs on merchant marine ships for seasonal work. It was claimed there were a number of able seamen at present unemployed in the city and district.

DECISION RESERVED BY APPEAL COURT

 The act had been declared beyond the powers of the British Columbia Legislature by Mr. Justice Robertson in an action brought by John Day, Victoria merchant and holder of a Victoria City debenture of $100. His counsel, P. J. Sinnott, attacked the statute on the grounds that it affected property and civil rights outside the province and that it conflicted with Federal interest law. The Attorney-General of British Columbia, and Andrew McGavin and E. W. McMullen, two of three trustees appointed to carry out re-funding, joined the City in the appeal.

TO SAVE MUNICIPALITY
 H. A. Maclean, K.C., counsel with

H. S. Pringle, of Victoria, for the City, declared the act was "an absolutely decent arrangement, something to save this municipality from chaos." It was nonsense, he said, to say that "we are arrogating to ourselves the Dominion's powers with regard to interest."

Mr. Maclean denied the act was an act of repudiation and said the pith and substance of the legislation was to give the City time to pay its debts.

The change from the original set-up was of the smallest kind, the lawyer declared, and was intended to enable the City to tide over a financial depression. It was as much in the interest of debenture holders as the City, he declared, for if the holders had insisted on payment on the due dates, the City might have been faced with bankruptcy.

Some debenture holders, it developed in the course of the hearing, under the refunding scheme will receive a higher interest rate after the dates of maturity than what they are now receiving.

FOR OUTSIDE CLIENTS
 In answer to a question from Chief Justice Martin, P. J. Sinnott, who said he was acting for clients outside the province, declared that if the act was limited to persons in British Columbia, his only objection would be to the change in the rate of interest.

"But not if the new rate of interest is incidental to the contract," answered the Chief Justice, supported by Mr. Justice Sloan.

His Lordship explained that the Legislature can take any house from me tomorrow without recourse."

"By what magic is this thing which is good here transposed into something bad in another place?" he inquired.

Mr. Sinnott contended debentures were bearer bonds and, in the hands of holders outside British Columbia, were like chattels, so that when the Legislature dealt with them the legislation in reality affected property and civil rights outside the province.

ALBERTA'S NEW LAWS

A digest with commentary of a series of statutes passed at the late session of the Alberta Legislature is given by The Financial Post of Toronto. It follows:

(1) A direct tax of 2 per cent on the principal sum owing on mortgages—including those owned by the Canadian Farm Loan Board. This in itself is an impost of between one and two million dollars which must be borne directly by tens of thousands of individual and institutional mortgage holders in the province and throughout the country.

(2) Preposterous penalties for failure to pay the above tax or omitting to register properties and file returns by June 1 (a physical impossibility). These penalties amount to 60 per cent annually for non-payment of tax and to $10 a day ($3,650 a year) in the case of each return not so made. It is estimated that an unsuccessful appeal to the Privy Council by a typical large institutional mortgagee might cost as much as twenty million dollars in penalties alone. Such penalties are considered in themselves an effective barrier against lenders testing their rights in the courts, thus depriving them of their legal rights as citizens.

(3) A Home Owners Securities Act which prevents creditors foreclosing on an urban home without first making a present of $2,000 to the person whose home is foreclosed—regardless of the value of the property. This act also exempts the "home quarter section" (160 acres) of any farm from foreclosure—virtually carving out of a mortgage the best and most valuable part of the mortgagee's security.

(4) A far-reaching amendment to the Limitation of Actions Act which permits repudiation of all debts made prior to July, 1936, by permitting debtors to "sit tight" until their debts can be outlawed or "statute-barred" in July, 1940.

Of the foregoing The Financial Post says: "Throwing aside all compromise and reason in matters of debt adjustment and settlement, they (the Acts) provide in effect a preposterous debt-cancellation scheme which undermines the security behind individual contracts, deprives creditors of their rights in the courts, and threatens the savings of hundreds of thousands of individual and corporate investors and insurance policyholders in all parts of the Dominion."

The Toronto Telegram, commenting on the legislation, says: "Alberta's latest confiscatory legislation makes it possible to appropriate Premier Heppburn's disinclination to have this province (Ontario) run for the West. National unity is a fine thing, and is the desire of all patriotic Canadians, but if Alberta is to continue to play the mad dog, it would be better for the rest of Canada if that province were left to sink or swim by its own endeavors. Alberta will naturally suffer, as the legislation sacrifices whatever credit it had outside its own borders. But unless the Dominion acts promptly to correct this abuse of legislative power, all Canada will be similarly discredited and may expect to be placed in financial quarantine. . . . The present Acts by which Alberta has shocked the Dominion should either be immediately disallowed, or all further grants to that province should be withheld and applied to the relief of victims of Alberta's madness."

The Montreal Star says: "The idea of putting into effect confiscatory Acts that simply ignore all rights is worse than the action of the Mexican Government in confiscating the oil fields. At least that action was directed solely against foreign investors, but here are three Acts which are manifestly designed to confiscate the rights and moneys of Canadians, fellow-citizens of the people of Alberta within the Dominion of Canada. It has remained for the Social Credit Government of Alberta, under the leadership of William Aberhart, to promulgate a series of enactments which, if allowed to pass into operative law, will constitute the most disgraceful instruments of political vengeance this Dominion has ever known. Indeed, they have no parallel in our history."

A SPONGING POLICY

Where political prejudice enters into a situation but little consideration is given to truth. None is given in a recent comment made by Le Droit, of Ottawa, on the subject of Canada's role in armaments. It says:

"There is really no reason to feel pity over the huge sums which Great Britain is at present spending to reinforce her army, her navy and her aviation. She is imposing these sacrifices upon herself for the protection of her interests, which are not those of Canada. She has proved in the past that she was prepared to sacrifice the interests of Canada. Why should Canada bleed herself white in defence of England and the Empire? We are ready to fight for Canada," Mr. Roosevelt declared. These words in the mouth of the President of the United States are much more weighty and accurate than they ever will be in the mouths of British statesmen. Canada's duty is to take advantage of a geographical situation which other countries envy her, to maintain good relations with her neighbors and prudently to keep herself free from European conflicts, from the quarrels of Great Britain, the Empire and the United States."

A superficial study of history will remind Le Droit that in the Great War the United States did not raise a finger to protect Canada when German raiders were loose in the Pacific Ocean. History, too, records that it was Great Britain, not the United States, that wrested Canada from the French. It is a matter of record, as well, that ever since Canada was it has been the British fleet that has guarded her overseas commerce, made it possible for her to carry on her government in peace and given her trading advantages that she could not otherwise have enjoyed. It is the prestige of the Empire that is a substantial contributory factor to making Canada what she is today. Moreover, history is an indication, and a striking one, that what the British taxpayers contribute for defence is for the defence of the Empire as a whole, Canada included. Le Droit is wrong, and wrong purposely in advancing its thesis that while Canada should keep itself aloof from the quarrels of other countries it should sponge on the United States for its defence.

A GOLD SHIPMENT

Speculation has been aroused as to the purpose of the recent delivery of $100,000,000 of outside gold to the Bank of Canada. Other than to admit that the gold is there, officials of the bank are silent. The impression prevails, however, that the deposit is part of a long-term plan of Great Britain to provide for every possible emergency. By establishing a supply of gold in Ottawa, Great Britain appears to be taking precautions in line with other provisions against eventualities, such as her accumulation of a food supply sufficient to feed the nation during the early months of a war and her survey of the possibilities of manufacture of war materials in the Dominions.

That the shipment of gold was made to establish credits for immediate armament orders is held to be most unlikely. Such a store of gold would be useful in payment for war supplies after an emergency had developed, but it would not be fulfilling its logical purpose if used before an emergency. It is most unlikely that it will enter into Canada's monetary system; rather it will remain as a useful hoard in the event of conditions arising that might endanger the safe transfer of funds from other sources. Bullion may be shipped out of the Dominion only under licence, but it is probable that in this case Canadian Treasury officials have given an undertaking to grant the required licence at any time. In this way Great Britain could readily ship her gold to the United States or elsewhere in the event of an emergency should it not be required for credits in Canada.

ECONOMIC LUNACY

Mr. Rogers, the Minister of Labor, says that Canada cannot spend itself out of the depression, and that there is no intention at Ottawa of embarking on a big "pump-priming" programme. It may well be hoped that he speaks for the Government. The Ottawa Journal reminds that Government that in five years the Roosevelt Administration of the United States spent $40,000,000,000 on pump-priming, "yet in recent months the United States has experienced the most precipitate decline in business in the history of the country." The Journal goes on to say:

"If there be public works which Canada requires, things which are necessary to our national plant and equipment, things which promise that they will be self-sustaining, let us build them. But to launch upon public expenditures for the mere purpose of pump-priming, building things we don't need, and building them extravagantly on borrowed money, would be but to add to our troubles. Such a course, at this stage, would be lunacy."

The proposal that in future when the birthday of Queen Victoria (May 24) falls on Tuesday it should be celebrated on the preceding Monday merits contempt and not official consideration. It is inspired by purely materialistic conceptions. There is that respect due to the dead that should not make their birthdays movable feasts.

The authority for the statement that the forty-hour week and legislation creating more leisure have resulted in "widespread and excessive drinking among the natives of New Zealand," is Right Rev. F. A. Bennett, Bishop of Aotearoa. Bishop Bennett is a Maori, and so sought to know whereof he speaks.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

The British Commonwealth observed a significant date the other day; the anniversary of the accession of His Majesty King George VI. and his Royal Consort, Queen Elizabeth. On the surface, very little was said; but deep down in the hearts of the people there was quiet satisfaction at many things; at an Empire drawn closer together; at an entrenchment of simple family virtues; at the clear answer given to the call of duty; and above all, at a growing resemblance to one whom the Empire loved and followed gladly for a quarter of a century.

In a very real sense, the Royal Family have become a family enshrined in the hearts of the people. In a manner beyond normal powers of expression in a silent, undemonstrative race, the feeling of a common, human bond has taken root, and grown. Nor is there any tie as strong, as deep, or closer to the very fibre of the race, than that selfsame human understanding. In it are woven affection, sympathy, and a common pride in problems met and conquered when times were insecure. Love of home, love of children, loyalty, all that man is born with, go into that bond; and over all there is the spirit of a Royal Captain whose hand was steady on the wheel.

The Empire enthroned more than a King and Queen one year ago. It set the bounds against erosion of those timeless human values by which men rise to better ways. It kept the lamp of freedom burning in a world where storms were rife; are rife today. It honored a tradition long handed down and strengthened in the march of Time. It called to duty, and did not call in vain. It told the world that British people like the British way, wherein no word is given lightly nor in vain. It called to manhood, and to the ways of honest men.

A year has passed. The wheel is still in steady hands. The course is straight, and clear. An Empire watches bulwarks, knowing that they will not rot, or yield. It is an Empire closer knit for strength and loyalty at home, for watchfulness abroad; an Empire where the lips are mostly silent, but where heart speaks straight to heart, and in the best of cause; an Empire with its colors flying, with its message for the hope, the freedom of the world.

It was a significant anniversary that the British Commonwealth of Nations observed the other day. One likes to think the Royal Captain saw it too, and smiled to see the wheel in steady hands; knowing that the strongest bond is made of human love and understanding, not in the rise or fall of ministries. What if the lips are slow to speak, and shy at showing feeling; within his heart, an Empire said: Long Live Their Gracious Majesties, King George and Queen Elizabeth. God Bless the Royal Family.

Sometimes aviation gives itself a black eye. While the official investigation has yet to be held, news dispatches from the South suggest that a new transport air liner was flown blind into the side of a hill in fog, while on a short-cut over the Sierra Madre Mountains. On the same day, and at the same time, a regular transport plane took off from the same airport and later arrived safely at its destination, following the radio-range. If the investigation bears out the news dispatches, the unfortunate tragedy should drive home again that there are no shortcuts in flying; that airlines are correct in insisting upon signal flying; and that there is no chance in the air for a second error in judgment. It is difficult enough to make the public discriminate between military aviation, to which some risk will always be attached, and civil aviation, which has reached such a high degree of safety and protection, without having the record further confused by such mistakes. Full sympathy will naturally extend to the victims of the present disaster; but that sympathy will be deepened by the fact that, if the reports are correct, the loss need not have occurred. The lesson points again to Canada's wisdom in installing the radio beam on the Trans-Canada Airways; and should reinforce official determination to see that the beam is used. Flying is one department in man's progress where excuses always come too late.

GOVERNMENT TAKES LEAD IN ELECTIONS

GAINS OUTNUMBER LOSSES

The United (Government) party led by General Hertzog and General Jan Smuts, Vice-Premier and Minister of Justice, won seven seats carried under redistribution. In other constituencies they gained five seats and lost four. The Dominion group won four and lost two; Independents lost three; Nationalists lost one.

While the Dominion party scored some successes they were more than counterbalanced when it lost its leader and deputy leader. The leader, Col. C. F. Staalder, was defeated in a four-cornered contest by F. B. Allen, United party, with A. M. Merkel, Labor, and A. S. Van Hest, Nationalist, also running.

BEATEN BY JOURNALIST

C. W. A. Coulter, deputy leader, was beaten by B. K. Long, United party and former editor of The Cape Times, who took 3,046 votes of a total poll of 5,750.

Three of the twelve Cabinet members were re-elected: J. H. Hof-meyr, Minister of Mines; Oswald Pirow, Defence, Railways and Harbor, and Richard Stuttaford, Interior. The other members of the Cabinet, including General Hertzog and General Smuts, were opposed in seats to be reported later.

ously by the Japanese, whose military spokesmen asserted 200,000 Chinese defenders in the Lunghai zone now "are in the bag."

He declared the Japanese central lines were continuous "for all military purposes," although admitting there were still some gaps in the encirclement of the Chinese armies. Charging Japanese infantrymen who assaulted Suchow's walls were met with a hail of grenades and intensive Chinese machine-gun fire.

The Japanese quickly took up protected positions and fought off repeated counter-attacks while waiting for reinforcements.

Though military bulletins referred to attacking the city's walls, those ancient structures actually were leveled off several years ago, leaving some gates, dikes and fortifications, so that Suchow could not be considered a walled city in the same sense as Nanking and Peiping, which the Japanese already control.

FORMIDABLE OBJECTIVE

The leveled remainder, however, still presented a formidable military objective.

Japan's advancing lines were said by the Japanese to form a gigantic net extending from the Yellow River across the vital Lunghai Railway to Suhsien, forty-five miles south of Suchow.

The capture of Suhsien, by forces moving north, left only sixty miles of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway untraversed and a column was reported moving north to join the attack on Suchow.

LARGEST CONSIGNMENT OF PLANES FOR CHINA

SAN PEDRO, Calif., May 18 (AP).—One of the largest consignments of United States-made war planes exported to China leaves San Pedro for Hongkong today aboard the British motorship Greyhound, of the Barber Line. The Norwegian freighter Tilton, also of the Barber Line, took out a number of planes Monday night. In all, nineteen single-engine attack bombers are included in the cargoes of the two vessels. The ships are valued at $900,000.

DON'T MONKEY WITH TAKE-OUT DOUBLES

The best advice that I can give the would-be bridge expert is to keep his take-out doubles above reproach. Of course, there are a multitude of other points which can become pitfalls for the unwary, but none is more important than this department of take-out doubles. Some of the greatest catastrophes I have seen at the bridge table resulted from the misuse of this highly effective but delicate weapon. In the hand described below a 2,000 point penalty followed East's horrible take-out double.

North, dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

The bidding:

Before I describe the play and report the gruesome fact that East took precisely one trick, the trump ace, on his eight trick contract, let us devote our attention to the more important phase, the bidding.

North's spade bid obviously was based on a shaded biddable suit, but probably was his best choice, and it certainly had a splendid outcome. East's take-out double was the sort of bid that fairly begs for trouble. A substantial part of East's substantial strength was in the spade suit itself where it could be highly valuable on defense, but of questionable worth if East-West should play the hand. East should have passed with the hope that the opponents would climb to a high spade contract against which he, of course, would have splendid defense.

I call special attention to South's redoubled. Many players are afraid of this type of redouble on the ground that they have such bad support for partner's suit. Under normal circumstances, I grant, adequate trump support is desirable,

No Air in Plug

Out at the Willows Park a horse was being exercised on the oval by a freckle-faced urchin in tattered overalls. A mother and her five-year-old daughter strolled past the track in the course of an afternoon walk before tea. Half-way around the track the aged animal was almost ready for a permanent sojourn at a glue factory. The little girl watched it leaning against the fence, heaving and snorting while its sides trembled a concertina. "Mummy," she remarked, "that poor horse runned out of air. Will they have to pump him up again?"

Some persons keep late hours. On the door of a stenographer in the Central Building we observed a sign: "Back at 2:15 a.m. . . . Bill, the Broad Street barber, wonders if the high tax on tea in England will disrupt cricket games—G.B."

It Can Be Done

There's an old axiom that says "You can't keep a good man down." Archie Byers, young MacDonald Electric football hurler, proved that to the letter Tuesday evening. Driven from the hillock with a fusillade of base knocks in his first start of the season, Byers came back with what most pitchers dream to accomplish, but seldom realize, a no-hit, no-run performance. It was a great triumph for the promising young moundsman, and will go down in the record books as one of the finest feats of the current season's play—S.T.

A Small World

Six months or so ago we were responsible for an article which appeared in a Sunday issue on the subject of Takarua, one of the mazes of coral atolls in the South Seas, a few hundred miles north of Tahiti. Mention was made of the wreck of the full-rigged ship County of Roxburgh, driven up on the reef in a hurricane in 1905, and of the fact that more than thirty years afterwards, the ship still sat upon the reef, with her masts and yards standing. This week we met in Victoria a man who shipped in the County of Roxburgh as a lad, when she was one of a big line of square-riggers trading out of the British Isles. Henry Passmore, 720 Middleton Street, is the man who was able to give us much interesting information about the old ship. In 1888 and 1889, as an ordinary seaman, and later as an able seaman, he made two trips in her from Cardiff to Batavia with coal, returning on the first trip via Chittagong, and on the second via Calcutta. It's many years ago now, but Mr. Passmore still remembers the ship, and was interested to see pictures of her in the lonely place where she has rested so long—R.M.

Glancing Over Sport

From the list of matches ahead of them it looks like the Victoria football season will end about two weeks before the 1938-39 schedule begins. To curtail the altogether lengthy season the best thing the officials can do is to discard half the trophies up for competition each season. The fans, players and others concerned are fed up with soccer eleven months a year. . . . George Harris, the ice man, predicts confidently that Maxie Schmelming will take Joe Louis in his stride next month when they meet for the world's heavyweight crown in the ring just over second base in the Yankee ball yard. . . . Just in case you play golf in Tennessee, here's a few words of the colored caddy. A "tuck-hog" is a man who slices or hooks; a "stump-stripper" has no mercy on tender shoulders, and a "timber wolf" gets into the shrubbery and can't get out. Well, we don't have to cross the border to find those kind of golfers. . . . The Vines Perry tennis tour is just about over and the lanky American is "miles" in front of his English opponent. . . . Here's a wild guess for you, Jimmy Thomson to win the U.S. open golf crown at Denver—J.D.

J. P. ROGER ELECTED HEAD OF ESQUIMALT DISTRICT LIBERALS

COLWOOD, May 18.—The annual meeting of the Esquimalt District Liberal Association was held on Tuesday evening in the Colwood Hall.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, J. P. Roger, Esquimalt; first vice-president, J. W. Wilkinson, Cobble Hill; second vice-president, A. Manzer, Sooke; secretary-treasurer, Peter Johnston, View Royal; members of the Federal Nainaimo Association, W. G. Brown, Sooke; Mrs. A. P. Bayles, Langford.

A feature of the evening was a presentation to Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitney-Griffiths, who were recently married, with an address signed by Presidents of all local associations within the district. Mr. Whitney-Griffiths also received a handsome reading-lamp and Mrs. Whitney-Griffiths a beautiful boudoir lamp. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney-Griffiths thanked the donors suitably and invited all friends to their home at Metehosin.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

ROYAL OAK

Preparations for the sports day to be held on June 4 were made at the recent meeting of the Royal Oak Scouts. At the Royal Oak flower show held recently, the troop won a prize for the model campsite display. A hike was held during the week-end, when the boys climbed to the top of Bear Hill, where they did some exploring. The work on the building of the new hall is making rapid progress, and the structure is expected to be ready for occupancy in the near future.

Maintains Board of Trade Interested in Welfare of Schools

J. E. Sladen Explains Reasons for Request to Saanich Council—Candidates for Vacant Trusteeships Express Views on Council's Attitude

CHARGES made by one of the six candidates in the Saanich School Board by-election that the Saanich Board of Trade's only interest in the contest was to evade a fair share of the cost of education, were answered by J. E. Sladen, a member of the latter board, who presided over an attendance of about thirty electors at a meeting held in the Keating Temperance Hall to hear the respective candidates last night.

"The Board of Trade consists of men who have children attending school—not only of men who are paying taxes and have no children at school, as has been suggested," Mr. Sladen declared. "There has never been any suggestion that costs should be reduced at the expense of education. The board's attitude is 'Get the best education that you can.'"

GOOD MEN WANTED
"We are out for good men, councillors or no councillors. The Board of Trade has no complaint against the conduct or condition of the schools. The delegation called on the council because it was interested primarily in education. We are willing to pay, but we want our money's worth," Mr. Sladen asserted.

Stating that he had consented to contest the election to test the feeling of the ratepayers as to whether or not they favored councillors holding dual office, Councillor L. H. Passmore stated that unless he were given a majority over the combined votes cast for the other two candidates for the one-year term, he would take it that the people did not want councillors on the board, and would not run again at the end of the year.

"Because we acceded to the request of the delegation from the Board of Trade, it doesn't mean that the council is being dictated to. If we did not think it was in the best interest of the people, Councillor Warren and I would not run," Councillor Passmore said.

Municipalities Protest Relief Rulings by B.C.

ACTING through the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, cities and districts of the province will lay their case for additional aid before the Provincial Government on Thursday, next week, at a conference with the Cabinet timed for 11 a.m. The cost of keeping individuals transferred wholly to municipal relief rolls by new Provincial rulings is the chief point at issue. The municipalities have protested the ruling on the ground that their budgets will not stand the added costs. Since then, the Government has made a separate settlement with Vancouver, which is to receive $7,500 monthly towards a works programme.

COUNCIL CONTROL

J. W. Higham declared that the two planks of his platform were promotion of efficient administration and resistance of council control. To put two councillors on the board would be to create a situation similar to the much-condemned practice of interlocking directorships, he asserted.

Referring to the statement by the councillor candidates that if both were elected they would still be a minority on the board and could not control it, Mr. Higham asked: "If the two councillors couldn't control the board, what is the purpose of putting them on?" He declared that there seemed to be a deliberate plan to discredit the present trustees, and pointed out that the trustees had not shown that they did not know how to spend money wisely.

W. A. Kettle thanked Mr. Sladen for his explanation at the opening of the meeting. He stated that he had objected to a remark made by one of the members of the delegation to the council that "they did not want any new members railroaded on to the board." At a by-election there could be no "railroading," Mr. Kettle said, adding that the chairman's remarks had cleared up that question.

ESTIMATES PASSED

Regarding the question of councillors on the School Board, Mr. Kettle pointed out that no councillor elected this year could have anything to say on the estimates, for these had already been passed.

If the two council candidates were elected, it would only be the thin end of the wedge towards council control of school affairs, R. G. "Bob" Shanks asserted. He contended that the councillors had agreed to run after hearing a delegation consisting of three representatives of a body of only fifteen members. Mr. Shanks maintained that sound common sense was all that was really needed in the governing of school affairs, and submitted that his own experience in business was sufficient to qualify him for trusteeship.

CAT AND MOUSE

Strenuous opposition to the principle of councillors holding dual positions was expressed by W. J. Lynn, who stated that he had entered the field to give the ratepayers a chance to express their opinion on this question. There could be no School Board harmony with councillors as trustees, for it would be a case of the cat watching the mouse, he declared.

Councillor E. C. Warren stated that if elected he would be controlled by no one, and would do only what he considered right and proper. He could see no reason why councillors should not hold dual positions, and pointed out that they were in a better position to know the affairs of the municipality. In any case, he said, the final decision rested with the electors.

Former Trustee William Tomes also was given an opportunity to explain his reasons for resigning from the board.

The six candidates addressed another meeting, held in the Royal Oak Community Hall, where H. D. Cotton presided over an attendance of about twenty-five electors.

The candidates will address a further meeting tonight in St. Mark's Hall, Ward Two.

PARADE PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED

Night Event to Start at 8:30 o'Clock on May 24—Fireworks Provided

Following a meeting of the City Council celebration committee yesterday afternoon, Alderman W. H. Davies stated that the May 24 decorated and illuminated parade of marchers in costume, bicyclists, motorcycles and automobiles would start from Beacon Hill School at 8:30 o'clock to wend its way through the park.

Parade marshals will be Alderman B. J. Gadsden and George Allison. Entries may be left with Alderman Davies at 1008 Broad Street, in the Pemberton Building. The parade in five sections will terminate on the football field, roped off to assist the judges.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY

After the judging is completed, about 9:30 o'clock, there will be a $750 fireworks display facing Horse Shoe Bay. The Canadian Legion Band will furnish music. Plans call for a public address system to amplify the band music and explain the various fireworks.

The committee made plans for a ceremony on July 1 to mark the erection of a 166-foot flag pole atop

Thousands Attend Last Service for Sister of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett

VANCOUVER, May 18.—On the tree-shaded slopes of Mountain View Cemetery, Mrs. W. D. Herridge was buried today beside the grave of her sister. It was Mrs. Herridge's own request that she be brought back after death to Vancouver, where she lived during Great War years and visited often since.

Blocks long, the funeral cortege wound from downtown St. Andrew's Wesley United Church through residential districts to the hillside cemetery.

Federal, provincial and civic governments were represented in the many hundreds who paid tribute to the wife of Canada's former Minister to the United States and sister of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, former Dominion Prime Minister.

Under the large stained-glass window Mrs. Herridge helped erect in memory of her sister, Mrs. Evelyn Coates, were flowers from every part of Canada brought here this morning in the special car which carried the casket from Eastern Canada.

Hundreds who could not gain admittance to the church lined sidewalks and roadway outside as the short service began. Inside the congregation joined the choir in singing "Unto the Hills."

The choir sang "Souls of the Righteous in the Hands of God," before Rev. Willard Brewster, the pastor, began his address.

"It has been true all through history, the ever present influence of good women in the domestic and public life of society," Mr. Brewster said. "We are honored today in paying simple tribute to such a life."

"It is fitting that the tribute should be paid here, though every

Take Your Mirror to the window—look well at your face—others do! How does it pass the test? Is it all clear and smooth—a skin you love to touch, or is it all disfigured with unsightly superfluous hair and moles? Never mind! Do not be down-hearted; all these blemishes may be removed safely, positively and absolutely—and the cost will be within your means, so do not suffer the torture of miserable self-consciousness one moment longer—it is such a drawback, such a handicap, and truly needless. ### PUBLISH PAPERS OF ASTRONOMERS

Results of Investigations at Dominion Astrophysical Observatory Here Contained in Volumes

The results of the investigations of the astronomers at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory are issued from time to time as completed. Six complete volumes of about 350 pages each of quarto size have already been issued. The first two numbers of Volume VII have just been received from the printer and were mailed yesterday to the 400-odd observatories and universities on the regular mailing list.

STAR VELOCITIES
The first number is a rather lengthy one of ninety-seven pages by Dr. W. E. Harper containing his determinations of the radial velocities of 917 stars of the so-called hydrogen class. The spectrum plates for this extensive work have been secured with the big telescope over the past fifteen years. For about half of these stars nothing was previously known as to their line-of-sight velocities and this additional

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

ACTION SNAPS

What action! Must have taken a fast shutter to stop it! Well, no—don't tell anybody, but it was snapped at 1-25 second, approximately box-camera shutter speed. The athlete simply held still for a moment.

PRETTY soon the weather will be opening up, schools will start on their Spring athletic programmes, small boys will be knocking battered baseballs around on vacant lots—and your youngster, very likely, will be among them. These amateur athletics are excellent material for your camera, whether it is a box camera such as most of us have, or one of the new high-speed miniatures.

Of course, with a box camera you cannot always expect to "stop" rapid action. That is the field of the cameras with high-speed lenses and shutters. But there's no reason why you can't picture action poses—some of them so realistic that people who see them would vow the pictures were high-speed "stop-action" snaps. Any athlete, proud of his muscles data is very valuable in statistical studies of the general motion of the stars.

BRILLIANT STAR
The second number is a small one by Dr. Harper and G. H. Blanchet, which discusses the orbit of the three-body system of the star numbered 5,472 in the Draper Catalogue. This star, whose intrinsic brightness is about ten times that of our sun, consists of two components relatively close to each other and revolving about each other in a period of 101.56 days. The pair in turn is swayed by a more massive star about which the pair makes a complete revolution in approximately 3,320 days.

Number of Seamen Took "French Leave" From H.M.S. Dorsetshire
HONGKONG, May 18 (P).—Fifteen seamen deserted H.M.S. Dorsetshire while the cruiser was visiting Australian ports in connection with Sydney's one hundred and fiftieth anniversary celebrations, it was disclosed today. Four of the deserters are being brought here from Australia.

When the Dorsetshire was off Queensland early this month, it was learned, Leading Seaman Robert Dickinson was found shot in his bunk. Another seaman was placed under naval arrest. Australian authorities declared they had no jurisdiction in the case as the incident occurred outside the limit of territorial waters. (The Admiralty in London said that according to wireless messages from the cruiser only eight seamen deserted).

Homecraft Class
Begins Sessions

The first mothers' homecraft class met yesterday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A., with eighteen mothers present. They took a keen interest in the lecture, with demonstration, on the respective values of different foods and new and interesting ways of preparing and serving them, as well as hints on economical buying. The importance of "mother's place in the home" was also emphasized, and how much the happiness and well-being of the home depends on the home-maker, who needs to be well equipped with knowledge to do her job well.

Tea was served after the class by Mrs. K. Cooper and Mrs. E. J. Reed, two members of the committee, who are sponsoring this venture, and Miss Kirkwood presided over the tea table. During the afternoon Mrs. Mutrie and Mrs. Perry, of the city relief office; Mrs. Creasor, of the V.O.N., and Miss L. McLaughlin, of the Family Welfare Association, as well as Mrs. Richard Felton, of the V.O.N. and Y.W.C.A. boards, dropped in for tea.

This class is under the auspices of four of the social agencies of the city, and it is hoped that it will prove the need of further similar classes next Autumn.

Dutch Treat Is Given by Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter

The Dutch treat tea held yesterday afternoon in the Nurses' Home of the Jubilee Hospital by the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., was one of the most delightful affairs of its kind ever held by the chapter. The large crowd of guests were welcomed by the regent, Mrs. F. E. Dowdall, who, with other members of the chapter, wore attractive Dutch aprons and crisp white organdie Dutch caps.

The silver collection was placed in two authentic wooden Dutch shoes and the flowers on the home-cooking table were in pretty containers which also carried out the motif of the afternoon.

The tea table was charmingly arranged with a cutwork and lace cloth and centred by a large bowl of yellow and pink tulips and iris, with matching candles in silver candlesticks. Little Dutch doll figures were also used as part of the decoration scheme. Mrs. O. M. Jones and Mrs. Kyrie Symons, Mrs. J. W. Hudson and Mrs. William Ellis presided at the table during the afternoon, and members of the chapter assisted in serving. Mrs. H. A. Stuart was the tea convener and her committee included Mrs. H. K. Perry, Mrs. Martin Cottle, Mrs. G. H. Price and Mrs. L. A. Grogan.

COOK BOOK SOLD

At the home-cooking stall were Mrs. J. W. Hudson, Mrs. R. J. Beattie and Mrs. H. H. Davies. In addition to cakes, jams, jellies, etc., copies of the chapter's cook book were on sale and were in great demand.

There was tea-cup reading by Mrs. Carter. Bridge was played in the smaller reception room in the home, the prizes, presented by Mrs. O. M. Jones, being won by Mrs. A. T. Stewart and Mrs. Carter. The prizes were the gifts of Mrs. Dowdall and Mrs. Walter M. Walker. Six tables of bridge were in progress.

THE PROGRAMME

Miss Phyllis Deaville delighted the guests with vocal solos, her accompaniment being played by Mrs. Grace Deaville; Miss Gwendolyn Harper played pianoforte solos, which were much enjoyed, and two little pupils of the Russian Ballet School, Beverly Luft and Corinne Moore did an attractive Dutch dance in costume. The soloists were presented with bouquets and the children received boxes of chocolates in appreciation of their part in the programme. As result of the affair, a substantial sum will be added to the chapter's milk fund.

ENGAGEMENTS

WEIR-PARKER

The engagement is announced by Mrs. C. M. Parker, 3119 Rose Street, of her second daughter, Bessie Levis, to Mr. David A. Weir, Vancouver. The wedding will take place shortly.

LORDS APPROVE PREMIER'S POLICY

ARCHBISHOP APPROVES

But he commended the Anglo-Italian agreement. "It is surely better," he said, "to secure some relief in the existing tension in Europe than to secure some relief to one's own feelings."

Leading the unsuccessful attack on the Government, Lord Snell, Labor peer, charged Great Britain's stand on Ethiopia and Spain had antagonized the United States and was driving the smaller nations out of the League of Nations into the arms of the dictators.

Debate centred on a motion by Lord Snell that the foreign policy of His Majesty's Government, including the acceptance of the sacrifice of Abyssinia's (Ethiopia's) independence, "is detrimental to the democratic Government of Spain and offers no certainty of any corresponding gain to the principles of peace and democracy."

A SUDDEN RIFT

LONDON, May 18 (AP).—A sudden rift in France's friendship talks with Italy roughened the road today for Great Britain's policy of European settlement.

Critics of the Government in the House of Commons sought assurance that Britain would support French Premier Edouard Daladier in his attempts to make his peace with Italy. Viscount Halifax, Foreign Secretary, faced the House of Lords to answer attacks on the Anglo-Italian friendship pact.

In the House of Commons, Richard Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, refused to accept an Opposition interpretation that Premier Mussolini was trying to drive a wedge between Britain and France.

A French move to bolster her force of 120,000 colonial troops by recruiting 80,000 additional native soldiers in Tunisia, French protectorate, and Italy's coming military manoeuvres in Libya, near the Tunisian border, emphasized Italian-French differences in that part of the world.

BIG STUMBLING BLOCK

Premier Mussolini's tacit demand that France get away from the Spanish Government's side of the civil war "barrier" was an even more important stumbling block to a Rome-Paris handshake.

Officially, Britain was in a position of being willing to offer her "good offices" to either France or Italy in hurrying a settlement of the Spanish issue and thus facilitating a French-Italian agreement.

Unofficially, there were indications that Britain would press France for an early non-intervention agreement that would close the Pyrenees border to passage of arms for Government Spain and would pledge France to recall French volunteers when Mussolini withdraws his troops.

NEAR BREAKDOWN

In Paris, French-Italian negotiations were said to have approached a breakdown for two reasons—Italian pressure on Tunisia and Soviet Russia's pressure on France to let supplies pass to Government Spain.

Diplomatic sources said Russia had threatened to withdraw support from the Anglo-French stand in European politics unless shipment of Russian arms into Government Spain were permitted.

On the Tunisian question, Britain and France stood together, determined to permit no further Italian influence for control of Tunisia.

In authoritative quarters it was said Britain "will never trade French friendship for a pact with Italy."

STRAWBERRIES ON MARKETS JUNE 1

June 1 is the date set by Greater Victoria strawberry growers for the first of the berries to make their appearance on the local market. Warm weather of the last few days and a generous amount of sunshine have made it possible for the growers to predict the marketing date.

"Prospects for the strawberry crop are fairly good at this time," said Capt. Edward Livesey, manager of the Saanich Fruitgrowers' Association, yesterday. "We expect nothing exceptional; only the average crop when the weather is favorable. We need warmer weather. The moisture has been good."

Besides providing Victoria homes with the best in small fruits, the opening of the season will give employment to a large number of young men and women as pickers on the various plantations on the Saanich Peninsula, where the finest of Vancouver Island berries are grown.

Bolero Jacket Costume With Suspender

Skirt Gives That "Little Girl" Look

3055 SIZES 12-20

You'll look as fresh as a schoolgirl in this smart bolero costume. The suspender skirt has swishy plaits and a wide fitted belt. The suspenders button "on," so you can go without them for a change, if you like. It is made of fashionable cotton pique in an indefinite check pattern in aqua and white, that you'll wear for town or country. The simple white blouse may be collarless or have a shirt collar. In this season of color-switching, another splendid idea is to contrast the jacket and skirt, as white cotton; hosiery and skirt and navy print; the blouse in blue and white print. Easy to sew and for such a low price you'll probably end up by making both of them. And what's to prevent you from using the pattern again for separate jackets, blouses or skirts!

Style No. 3055 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 years; 30, 32, 34, 36 and 38-inch bust. Size 16 requires 3 3/8 yards of 39-inch material for bolero and skirt, and 1 1/8 yards of 39-inch material for blouse.

THAT STARTED THE TROUBLE!

Mike was a trifle "under the weather" as he marched down the street. When he passed two men who were talking on the street corner he promptly joined in the conversation.

"Are you gentlemen arguin' about Oireland?" he asked.

"No," replied one of the men, "we're not. We're just discussing some personal affairs."

Apparently satisfied, Mike staggered away. But he hadn't gone more than five yards when an idea struck him. He turned round again and wobbled back to the two men.

"Begorra!" he cried, "Maybeyou think Oireland isn't worth arguin' about!"

SINGING COWBOY

Dick Foran Offers Two Selections In the Western Thriller "Empty Holsters"

That hard-hitting, fast-shooting six-foot singing cowboy, Dick Foran, will make another of his always-popular screen appearances starting today at the Columbia Theatre in "Empty Holsters."

Not only the acting ability of this young Warner Bros. star, but his splendid baritone voice as well, has won him increasing popularity, and "Empty Holsters" proves to be one of the best pictures he has ever done.

Dick sings two ballads of the range—"Old Corral" and "I Gotta Get Back to My Gal"—and does them very pleasingly.

Billie Burke, whose role as the harried wife in "Topper" proved one of the most rib-tickling characterizations of the year, has another made-to-order comedy part as the head of the madcap family in "Merrily We Live," which will end today at the Atlas Theatre. Constance Bennett is seen again with Brian Aherne as her co-star.

SHIPS LEAVE GRAIN PORTS

Annual Ocean Race of Wind Craft Now Under Way—Twelve Enter

SYDNEY, Australia, May 18 (AP).—The white wings of the Australian grain trade ships again are carrying on the romantic tradition of the nineteenth century clipper ships that carried China's tea and Australia's wool to the Occident.

The annual "grain race" from Australia to Falmouth, England, and Cobh, Eire, is under way. Twelve large sailing ships, nearly all the square-rigged freight carriers still in commission, have started or are ready to start from grain-loading ports.

Sentimentalists about the sea watch these hardy survivors of a bygone age stave off the competition of steam and steel, although the twentieth century windjammers actually do not race.

The first may leave two, even three, months before the last and the sailing ship which takes fewest days from departure to landfall wins the year's unofficial honors.

The Great War gave impetus to a twentieth century revival of the old days before the mast. When Australia's wheat was rotting in barns and one-third of the Old World was starving, anything that could sail the seas was pressed into service to carry grain.

At the end of the eastward stage is perilous Cape Horn, feared and distrusted by all mariners. But once around the stormy cape they again find favorable winds until they reach another testing area—the doldrums. There they may become becalmed or find breezes too weak to move them for weeks on end.

"Are these bars strong?" "Yes, you couldn't break out." "I don't want to break out—I'm afraid my wife might break in."—Smith's Weekly, Sydney.

First President of Eire

Hailed by all Eire as its first President, Dr. Douglas Hyde, his daughter, Mrs. J. Sealy, and his grandchildren greeted him warmly when he paid a visit to their home at Donnybrook shortly after announcement of his election by acclamation. He is a noted Irish scholar.

CHAPTER XXX

Algy had never had the slightest intention of allowing Gay to go blinding off alone into dark, unknown grounds with the fairly obvious intention of meeting an anonymous blackmailer. She had, naturally, not announced this as her reason for coming down here in the middle of the night, but it seemed perfectly clear to him that it was what she meant to do, and the minute she mentioned Colebrook, and he guessed that their destination was Colebrook, he guessed too that it was probably Sylvia Colebrook who was being blackmailed and not Gay Hardwicke. He felt a queer rage against Gay for getting her mixed up with what was probably a piece of folly and no business of hers.

As he followed Gay at a safe distance up the drive, his rage turned back upon himself, because of all things in the world he could least afford to mix himself up with any scandal. He was a fool to have come, and a complete fool to have pledged himself not to ask any questions. He ought to have insisted on asking them. He ought at the very start to have said "Nothing doing" and hung up his receiver. He ought . . . In his heart of hearts he knew perfectly well that he would have taken Gay to Timbuctoo rather than let her run stupid risks without him.

He came to the end of the drive, and realized that he had lost her. What had he to do now? Follow the plan he had made and hope for the best. He wished her away—anywhere but here—in London—out of this business. It weighed darkly on his mind, darkly on them both.

As the sound of the shot rang out and died away, he began to run. A bird went up, startled, with a rush of wings. "His torch was in his hand. When he came to the yew walk he switched it on and saw the dark mouth gaping. And then from the far end he caught the flash of another torch. He plunged into the tunnel and ran along it. He was more afraid than he had ever been in his life before. There was a nightmare sense of weight upon his feet and upon his heart.

He came to the seat, and the full beam of his torch shone across it and showed him Gay standing there with a pistol in one hand and a fold of her skirt in the other.

What he felt was not to be put into words—a blinding anger, a cold fear. What was she doing with the pistol—Gay—what had she done? He said her name, and she threw the pistol on the seat and came running to him, her skirt skittering like a child. She was in his arms and he was holding her before there was time for either of them to think or draw breath. He felt her strain against him, shuddering. All that had resisted her broke in him and dissolved. He said quick and low: "What is it? Gay—darling—what is it?"

And Gay said, "He's dead! Oh, I think he's dead!"

"Who?"

"Francis."

"Where?"

"Outside—on the grass."

"Did you come to meet him? Was he blackmailing you?"

She put her hand against his chest and pushed him away.

"I can't breathe. Oh, no—it couldn't have been Francis—it couldn't!"

"Then why did you shoot him?"

"I didn't! Oh, Algy, I didn't!"

He released her.

"Where is he? Show me!"

They leaned together against the hedge and over the green sill of the window that was cut in it. In the light of Algy's torch Francis Colebrook lay dreadfully still.

"How does one get out there?"

Algy's tone was almost matter-of-fact.

Gay looked away. Francis was dead. She was quite sure that Francis was dead. She pointed to the left and said in a small, faint voice: "There's a way out along there."

There was, in fact, a way out at either end of the cross-piece. She didn't know why she had pointed to the left, but when he had run that way she thought perhaps it was because Sylvia had been standing on the right. He hadn't seen Sylvia yet.

She picked up her own torch from the arm of the seat and flashed it

How It Started

"WASHING DIRTY LINEN"

It may or may not be the brain-child of Voltaire, who, if he did not give it life, imparted to it momentum and standing.

The incident is said to have occurred almost in the exact middle of the Eighteenth Century, when General Manstein wrote to Voltaire, asking to be vindicated publicly of the accusations made against him.

Voltaire happened to be occupied answering the appeal of Frederick of Prussia to help him straighten out one of his dilemmas. So, he replied to Manstein:

"The King (Frederick) has sent me some of his dirty linen to wash; I will wash yours another time."

The metaphor has been preserved for posterity in a letter Voltaire wrote to his niece July 24, 1753, in which he commented:

"Voilà le roi qui m'envoie son linge à blanchir."

"TAURUS"

If May 19 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m., and from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.; from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., and from 10:30 until midnight.

This is a poor day to count chickens before they are hatched. Peculiar conditions may bring about changes in plans. Personal opinions are apt to vary greatly, so it is important that you do not act too quickly on any person's idea of what might constitute a right or wrong business policy. Take nothing for granted but investigate thoroughly any matter that requires good judgment being used in its furtherance or disposal. Be careful how freely you express yourself this day, for many remarks will be misconstrued and friendships endangered. High-pressure methods in commercial circles must be avoided, because their attempted use will cause many disappoint-

DOCTORS CHECK KIDNEYS FIRST

Conditions seem to be far more auspicious for social activities than for professional or mercantile enterprises. Married and engaged couples, and those whose courtship is progressing nicely, must be careful not to make much ado about nothing, if they wish to avoid causing an exhibition of irritation.

If a woman and May 19 is your birthday, you are kind-hearted, ever ready to enter into the moods of others, and a believer in practicing the Golden Rule. In transactions involving the spending of money you are probably very cautious, which argues well for your chances of accumulating a nice nest egg. Social life should have a strong appeal to you, and you should easily win a prominent position in the social whirl. As a restaurant manager, real estate, insurance or sales agent, author, professional entertainer or musician, a successful career may be awaiting you. The indications are that as a married woman you will enjoy great happiness, and have little to worry about. The child born on May 19 needs plenty of affection and companionship. It should have instilled in the principles of good sportsmanship. A good education may be essential to this youngster's success. If a man and May 19 is your natal day, you have a tendency of purpose, perhaps inspired by a great amount of ambition, that is likely to make your accomplishments noteworthy. As a merchant, manufacturer, banker, author, contractor, artist, sales promoter or political worker your achievements may bring you fame and fortune.

WORK IN SEATTLE TOLD TO QUAKERS

On Tuesday evening, Victoria Friends at the meeting house on Penn Street heard a splendid account of the work of the Friends' Centre among the students at the University of Washington. Beatrice Shipley, who is in charge of the work, explained that the work has three phases: First, educational, explaining that since the early days of Quakerism, Quaker schools and colleges offered a special form of education. Now, when higher education requires such highly specialized courses, such a work as that of the Friends' Centre helps to round out the education provided by the great universities. Second, the Quaker way of life, with its opposition to war, its simplicity and integrity has a special appeal to thinking students. Third, the Quaker doctrine of the "Light Within," which for nearly three hundred years has made Quakerism a power in the world, offers a solution to the present social and international life.

Twenty Horses Are Nominated for Big Race in the South

Strong Field Eligible to Compete in $15,000 Marchbank Handicap at Tanforan on June 4—Indian Broom, Whickee and Gosum Entered From Austin Taylor's Stable

SAN BRUNO, Cal., May 18.—Twenty top-ranking thoroughbreds were today nominated for the annual Tanforan Spring classic—the $15,000 Marchbank Handicap. This mile and one-eighth fixture, which has its third running here June 4, has in two short years established a position of unquestioned prestige on the Western turf. It was named in honor of John W. Marchbank, owner of Tanforan and one of America's foremost breeders.

Indian Broom rocketed to national prominence when he captured the first Marchbank Handicap in 1936, breaking the world record for a mile and one-eighth and hanging up the standard which still stands—1:47 3-5.

See Biscuit won the second running last year, uncorking one of the finest efforts of his sensational career. He was to have been ready for the Marchbank Handicap this year, but in the meantime, the War Admiral match race took him to New York.

Last Night's Scores

Navy 15, Equimalt A.C. 4.

Colwood Wood 15, Young Liberals 11.

Emsco 20, McIntyre and Harding 11.

Driving Turner from the hillock with a fusillade of hits in the seventh inning, Colwood Wood softened the Young Liberals, 15-10, at Victoria West Park. It was the fourth straight victory for the Woodmen and enabled them to retain top berth in company with Emsco.

Young Liberals brought their heavy guns into action in the first four frames and established a 9-2 lead, before the Colwood nine started to get to Turner's offerings.

Louie Leonard, young southpaw, followed Turner to the mound, but was unable to stem the attack.

Score by innings:

R. Young Liberals 11 14 300 011-11

Colwood Wood 001 102 055-15

Batteries—Turner, Leonard and Bellis; Billsborough and Milligan.

EMSCO WINS

Taking the lead in the third inning and widening their margin as the game progressed, Emsco trounced McIntyre and Harding, 20-5, at Reynolds Road. The losers held their own for the first frame, but for the remainder of the encounter found it impossible to hold the stevedores in check.

McIntyre and Harding 000 000 020-5

Batteries—Whitfield and Magee; Mitchell and Gunn.

NAVY TRIUMPHS

Sending Buddell to the showers with a succession of base knocks in the sixth frame, Navy softballers turned back the Equimalt Athletic Club, 13-4, at Admirals Road. For four innings it was anybody's ball game, with the score standing 2-2.

Sailors drove across six runs in the fifth session and added a quartette in the next frame.

Score by innings:

R. Equimalt A.C. 110-100 01-4

Navy 200 164 08-13

Batteries—Buddell, Hough and Cooper; Davis, DeCosta and Nelson.

TIMES GO UNDER

Defeat of The Times by the Northwestern Club featured last night's "C" Section fixtures. Playing at Savory Park, the evening newspaper representatives tasted their initial setback of the season in the form of a 13-11 defeat. Trailing by eight runs going into the final frame, Times drove across six runs in a belated rally that just fell short.

JIM TURNER TWIRLS BEES TO GREAT WIN OVER PIRATES, 2 TO 1

Long Outfield Fly Drives In Winning Tally After Five Extra Innings—Cubs Beat Giants and Cards Trim Dodgers—DiMaggio Hits Two Homers—Feller Wins Again

By The Canadian Press

The Boston Bees are getting harder and harder to put down every day and especially if the going is tough—as the Pittsburgh Pirates found out today.

Milkman Jim Turner pitched the Bees to a 2-1 victory—their fourth straight—over the Pirates, at Boston, in a fourteen-inning affair, the longest big league season.

Turner went the full route, fanning eight, allowing only five scattered hits and walking one. And all that after his second pitched ball went for a homer by Lee Handley.

The Bees trailed until the fifth, when Max West scored on Turner's single. The battle ended in the last of the fourteenth frame when Catcher Ray Mueller drove a long fly to right field to score Gene Moore.

Over at New York Manager Charlie Grimm gave his Chicago Cubs Dean-less lineup a drastic shakeup and the move paid dividends in the form of a 4-2 victory over the New York Giants. The result, the Cubs' second win in eight starts, ended the current series at one apiece.

CUBS BEAT HUBBELL

In doing it, the Cubs touched King Carl Hubbell for ten hits, most of them in the last two frames, when they scored three runs to come from behind for the victory.

The other National League game saw the St. Louis Cardinals put on one of their away-from-home shows to "shop up" the Brooklyn Dodgers, 12-4. The gashouse gang belted thirteen hits for twenty-three bases, including homers by Ducky Medwick, Mickey Owen and Don Guttridge, while Bob Weiland held the Dodgers to six safeties.

Cincinnati's scheduled appearance at Philadelphia was postponed by rain.

In the American League young Bob Feller went to work on the important Philadelphia Athletics, at Cleveland, to emerge with a 7-2 victory for the Indians. He allowed only six hits.

It was the Iowa farmhand's fifth win of the season and pulled the Indians within thirteen percentage points of the idle first-place Boston Red Sox.

Joe DiMaggio got his fifth and sixth homers of the season at St. Louis as the New York Yankees trounced the Browns 11-7. The circuit clout came with men on base each time.

Weasley Perrell allowed but six hits at Detroit as he pitched the Washington Senators to a 5-1 shutout victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Wet grounds postponed Boston's scheduled tussle at Chicago in the American League.

PASCH BACKED TO WIN RACE

H. E. Morris' Horse Favorite to Capture the Derby on June 1

LONDON, May 18 (H. E. Morris' Pasch went back to 2 to 1 tonight in betting for the Derby on June 1. In a callover of odds at the Victoria Club the colt was strongly backed at that figure, as compared with 15 to 8 in Monday's callover.

The second favorite, Sir Abe Bailey's Golden Sovereign, also lengthened a point, going from 13 to 2 to 1.

St. Humphrey de Trafford's Portmarnock improved on reports from Newmarket that the colt had completely recovered from shin soreness that put him on the walking list last week-end. He was quoted at 10 to 1, as against 100 to 7 on Monday.

James V. Rank's Scottish Union and Viscount Astor's Pound Foolish were backed at 100 to 9 and the Aga Khan's Mirza II at 20 to 1.

FINANCE - COMMERCE - MARKETS

Industrials Give Firm Foundation On Wall Street

NEW YORK, May 18 (P).—Selective buying of industrial stocks gave the market a fairly firm foundation to stand on today.

Buyers continued to nibble mainly at electrical equipment, chemical, building, farm implement, steel and miscellaneous industrials, apparently on the hope business would come out of its slump later in the year. Gains of fractions to more than a point were general in these groups.

A minor buying flurry at the opening quickly faded, leaving prices virtually inert until another slight upward tilt lifted leading industrials gently in late trading. Transactions totaled only 398,370 shares against 416,000 in the preceding session. The Associated Press composite price of 60 stocks was up 2 at 40.3.

United States Government obligations, utility and industrial issues showed strength today in the bond market while rails generally were lower.

The Associated Press average of ten industrials advanced 2 to 97.3 and the average of ten utilities was 2 ahead at 91.0.

Government bonds ranged up as much as 5-32. Heaviest pressure in the carrier list, with losses confined to fractions. The average of twenty rails declined 1 to 55.5.

Foreign governments were slightly lower, the average declining 1 to 62.8.

DOW JONES AVERAGES
Dow Jones averages closed today as follows:
Thirty industrials, 117.02, up 0.66.
Twenty rails, 22.54, unchanged.
Twenty utilities, 91.45, up 0.55.
Forty bonds, 87.58, up 0.02.

TIME OUT!

By Chet Smith

"What do you mean, it's a photo finish?"

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

By Fred Neher

"Junior kept bumping his head on it all the time."

Jane Dixon Says:

THE COURSE OF TRUE LOVE IS ROUGH ALL YEAR ROUND—BOY WHO STOPS GOING WITH A GIRL WHEN SHE STARTS SCATTERING HER AFFECTIONS, ACTS WISELY

The course of true love is beset with just as many bumps and sharp curves and unexpected detours in Spring and Summer, as it is in Autumn and Winter.

Doesn't seem any way to keep the course clear and smooth. There's only one way the traveler can hope to reach his goal of happiness, that is to keep his chin up, his heart high and his hands clean.

Dear Miss Dixon: I love a girl who tells me she loves me and will never love anyone else. This has been going on for two years. During the first year she wanted me to elope, but I didn't like the idea.

Now, during the last couple of months, I find she has been carrying on with another fellow during the day and allowing me to make love to her in the evenings. So I stopped seeing her regularly. She keeps coming to my home. She still says she loves me, and I know I love her, but I don't think she is a very nice girl to act as she does. I'm sure our friends know about it and I'm afraid they won't have much respect for either one of us if I allow this to go on. Was I right to break away from her sort of a girl?—Donald.

REAL LOVE IS NOT CHEAP

Answer: You were right as right, Donald, to break away and if you are the wise straight-shooting young man you appear to be you'll stay away until the girl stops using the word "love" so lightly.

Real love is not deceitful and it is not cheap. This girl seems to be both. Unless she does a right-about-face and tells you quite frankly you are only one of the men who interest her, or unless she stops cheating and proves her love by her loyalty to you, you should drop her entirely.

Dear Jane Dixon, writes Lonesome and Blue. The handsome young chap I love puzzles me so. I met him first at a party, and I've seen him at several parties since. A month ago I met him at a dance. We were introduced, but he didn't ask me to dance. He did walk home with me, though, but I haven't seen him since.

He seems to be bashful and looks quiet, but I don't think he is. I believe he's full of fun.

I am seventeen and my parents don't allow me to go with boys, but I'd like to enjoy myself in the right way. This boy is in my mind night and day. Please tell me what to do?

SEVENTEEN IS IN LOVE WITH LOVE

Answer: You are pretty young, my dear, to be thinking that: "Night and Day You Are the Only One" song.

When you meet the boy again be friendly and cheerful and be frankly glad to meet him. If he asks to see you or show you some attention tell your parents about it and explain to them that you would like to have him for a friend.

At seventeen you are more in love with love than you are with the boy. If you will stop playing the part of the weeping willow and step out into the pleasant fields where the rest of the young folks are frolicking, you will cease being lonesome and blue.

Dear Miss Dixon: I am eighteen and love a young man of twenty. My parents object to him. They have had trouble with his parents and our religion is different.

Sometimes my mother shields me and tells father I am with someone else when I'm with this boy. If father knew it he'd put me out of the house. Should mother shield me as she does? There's another young man they want me to have, but I can't care for him as I do the other one. What shall I do?—"Miss Pittsburgh."

MOTHER'S DANGEROUS DIPLOMACY

Answer: Your mother is trying to placate your father and please you, but she is using very dangerous diplomacy. Tell your parents you do not care for the young man of their selection because you love the man of your own choice. There will probably be an explosion, but you ought to be courageous enough to face it when your happiness is at stake. You have advanced no sound reason why your young man should be considered unworthy of your love.

"Alexander," said Mrs. Snooks, "It's our wedding anniversary." "It's no such thing," answered Mrs. Snooks, "It's the day you promised to nail the leg on the old kitchen table."

ESTABLISHES SAFETY ZONE

Famous Missionary Priest Will Solicit Funds for China's Homeless

Father R. Jacquinot, who became an internationally famous figure when he successfully interceded with the warring factions in the vicinity of Shanghai on behalf of Nantao refugees, arrived here yesterday morning on the Canadian Pacific liner Ss. Empress of Canada from Shanghai.

He is on his way to Washington, D.C., where he will make an appeal to President Roosevelt for assistance in raising funds to carry on the work he has undertaken. Later he will proceed to New York. He intends to visit centres in the United States and Canada before returning to the Orient.

Father Jacquinot is just such a personage as one might expect to find interested in humanitarian projects of a high order. His is apparently a nature which is not happy unless lightening the burdens of other people. In this connection, he finds plenty to do in China. A native of France, he has been a missionary to the Chinese for nearly a quarter of a century. Minus an arm, which he lost somewhere, he did not want to say anything about how it happened, passing the question off by saying there were "other wars" besides the Sino-Japanese affair.

MANY REPATRIATED

When he went to the mat with Japan over the refugee matter and held out for the establishment of a safety zone in the Greater Shanghai area, there were not so many refugees as there are now. Father Jacquinot guessed there are probably 1,300,000 refugees in and around Shanghai at the present time. No one knows the exact number. About 250,000 of the Nantao refugees have been repatriated through the efforts of the Shanghai International Red Cross Commission, of which Father Jacquinot is chairman.

The missionary priest stated that both the Japanese and the Chinese officials refused to deal with the refugee problem at first. Now both sides agree to the safety zone, which has been free from molestation of any kind. In speaking about the arrangement with the Japanese Government over the zone, Father Jacquinot said the Japanese made the treaty with him in much the same manner as such things are negotiated between sovereign states. The treaty guaranteed on the missionary's part that there would be no soldiers or arms harbored in the zone; but there were times when there was great fear that the refugees would commit some overt act by which the Japanese might be led to repudiate the agreement and destroy the portion of Nantao set aside as the resort of refugees.

RATIONS DISTRIBUTED

Father Jacquinot stated that morning Shanghai on May 2. That morning he had checked 55,000 rations which had been distributed. He said the number of refugees throughout the war-torn areas was growing continuously, and the need for funds was very great. Little can be done without money, and he can see no evidences of an early cessation of hostilities, as neither side is ready to seek peace.

Serving with Father Jacquinot on the Red Cross Commission in Shanghai are General McNaughton and Findlay Andrew, Great Britain; W. H. Plant, United States; Major Berents, Norway; and J. Jaspard and J. Sauvayre, France.

In Wake of Fleeing Troops

It is usually considered good military strategy for retreating troops to destroy their bridges after crossing the river. The fleeing Loyalist troops who went over the Pyrenees into France didn't have any bridges to burn, so destroyed everything of value, including transports and trucks. This picture shows some of the burning transport trucks on the Val D'Aran Road.
